

2006 15U WWBA Top Prospects

- 1) Jared Fancher, Katy Sting-3B/OF that showed outstanding raw power, and plus tools across board. Jared was on a different level physically than the competition in Marietta.
- 2) Trey Griffin, East Cobb Astros 14U-Griffin shows 5-Tool potential in the outfield for the Astros 14U, and should make plenty of noise on a national level over the next several years.
- 3) Keifer Nuncio, Katy Sting-The Sting's starting SS also showed outstanding ability on the mound topping out at 88, with clean mechanics and a great arm action.
- 4) Connor Winn, East Cobb Astros 15U-The tournaments top overall hitter, came through in the clutch the whole tournament, and was a nightmare for opposing pitchers.
- 5) Nick Cunningham, Indiana Bulls-RHP that took home Most Valuable Pitchers honors after dominating hitters with an nasty 82-84 FB with outstanding life, showing good feel for pitching.
- 6) Andrew Stumph, Katy Sting-Like his teammate Keifer Nuncio, Stumph was not a primary pitcher for the Katy Sting. When he got on the mound though he topped at 88 with great life on his FB.
- 7) Zane Evans, East Cobb Astros 14U-2010 RHP with a big athletic body that should make a lot of noise in years to come. Zane showed an easy 82-84 FB, with plenty of projection to throw harder in the future.
- 8) Patrick Harrington, Richmond Braves Nationals 14U-Top defensive catcher at the event, showed outstanding tools behind the plate, and can really swing the bat.
- 9) Tucker Barnhart, Indiana Bulls-Unbelievable defensive SS, who showed a very advanced skill set for his age, with outstanding speed.
- 10) Jamaal Austin, East Cobb Astros 15U-The best leadoff hitter in the tournament, was a nightmare for opposing catchers, and was brilliant in the outfield.
- 11) Andrew Toles, East Cobb Astros 14U-Very similar to Jamaal Austin, with outstanding speed, and was the catalyst for a very talented Astros 14U team.
- 12) Zach Wheeler, East Cobb Yankees-RHP that topped at 86, with minimal effort and a smooth easy arm action.
- 13) Matt Kirkland, Knoxville Yard-Two way player that showed great raw power at the plate, while topping at 85 on the mound.
- 14) Andrew Zimmerman, Louisville Prospects-RHP that touched 85, with great life on the ball.
- 15) Kyle Gordon, Union County A's-Talented RHP that topped at 85, and dominated hitters all week.
- 16) Thomas Geoffrey, East Cobb Astros 14U-RHP that touched 85, and showed outstanding athletic ability.
- 17) Sean Pope, Charlotte Megastars-Big Strong RHP that touched 86 and overmatched opposing hitters all week.
- 18) Ryan Walker, Diamond Devils-Talented SS that showed solid defensive skills, as well as being one of the best hitters in the tournament.

- 19) Cade Leblanc, Louisiana All Stars 15U-Talented Two-Way Lefthander that showed good raw power at the plate, while topping at 83 on the mound.
- 20) Taylor Rozier, Diamond Devils-Showed tremendous power at the plate, and had one of the top offensive performances of any player in the tournament
- 21) Jacob Phillips, East Cobb Orioles-Big Strong RHP that topped at 84, and two dominant performances on the mound.
- 22) Hudson Randel, East Cobb Braves 15's-Dominated on the mound with a FB that topped at 84.
- 23) Blake Crohan, East Cobb Astros 15U-Outstanding defensive catcher, that showed solid tools across the board
- 24) Erick Gaylord, East Cobb Braves 15's-Top notch hitter that showed off good raw power potential.
- 25) Chris Fritts, Katy Sting-Showed great feel for the game, with great actions, and solid tools across the board.
- 26) Jemarcus McFarland, Dallas Panthers-Huge kid with unbelievable power potential. Could end up being an outstanding football player down the road.
- 27) DJ Jaglois, Lakes Area Dodgers-Showed solid power potential with projectable body.
- 28) Kevin Link, East Cobb Astros 15U-Polished RHP that topped at 85, with great feel for the game.
- 29) Nolan Early, Indiana Bulls-One of the event's fastest players, that showed solid outfield tools.
- 30) Connor Mason, East Cobb Astros 14U-Polished RHP who produced one of the most dominating pitching performances of the tournament. 7 IP/ 10 H/ 1 BB/ 10 K

Other Top Prospects:

- Clay Dalton, STaF Yankees
- TJ Kerins, Team Georgia
- Zach Lower, STaF Yankees
- Andrew Mailhot, East Cobb Astros 15U
- Bob Migliazza, Connecticut Bombers
- Kyle Pelhank, Team Georgia